STEVEN W. CAPLE

President

Unity Hunt, Inc.

Vice President and Corporate Secretary

Hunt Southwest Real Estate Development, LLC

Steve Caple is vice president of Hunt Southwest Real Estate Development, LLC, and he also serves as the president of Unity Hunt, Inc. Unity Hunt is the vehicle through which the Lamar Hunt family oversees its holdings. Steve focuses on developing and implementing Unity Hunt's strategic directives, and he supervises the members of the management team who are responsible for its investment, operating, legal, finance, accounting and tax functions. Steve also serves as a trustee, board member and officer of certain Hunt family trusts and related companies, including Hunt Asset Management, LLC, Hunt Capital Group, LLC, Hunt Sports Group, LLC, Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc. and Hunt Southwest Real Estate Development, LLC.

Prior to joining Unity Hunt, Steve was the president of VFT Capital, LP, which provided seed capital, marketing assistance and operational support to hedge fund managers. While at VFT, Steve was responsible for planning and carrying-out its long-term initiatives, and he supervised its investment, operating, legal, finance and accounting efforts.

Before VFT, Steve was the president of Novo Networks, Inc. (now known as UniTek Global Services, Inc.) (OTC: UNTK), a publicly traded telecommunications company, where he had previously served as senior vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary. At Novo, Steve assumed responsibility for the strategic direction of the company and the management of its operating subsidiaries, and he continued to direct its merger and acquisition activities and its legal, compliance, reporting and investor relations programs. Prior to joining Novo, Steve held legal and management positions with GTE Corporation (now known as Verizon Communications, Inc.) (NYSE:VZ), Chancellor Media Corporation (now known as iHeartMedia, Inc.) (OTC: IHRT) and Marcus Cable, LP (now known as Charter Communications, Inc.) (NASDAQ: CHTR). Before Marcus, Steve practiced law with the firm of Patton, Haltom, Roberts, McWilliams & Greer, LLP.

Steve received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Texas at Dallas and a doctor of jurisprudence degree, cum laude, from the University of Arkansas. During law school, Steve served as the managing editor of the Arkansas Law Review.

Steve is licensed as an attorney in Texas and Arkansas, and he has been admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas and the United States District Court for the Western District of Arkansas. Steve also received Series 7, 24, 79 and 99 securities licenses from the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Steve is a member of the board of directors of the National Archives Foundation in Washington, and he serves on the host committee for the Great Investors' Best Ideas Foundation Investment Symposium. Steve also sits on the steering committee of GC Netweavers, a networking organization for corporate legal officers, and he is active in the Association of Corporate Counsel, American Bar Association, State Bar of Texas, Arkansas Bar Association and Dallas Bar Association. Steve previously served for six years as a member of the board of directors of the Texas Hedge Fund Association.

Steve resides with his wife, Tracey, in Dallas, Texas.
